Trains operate from 5am until midnight Monday to Thursday, with extended hours to around 1am on Friday and Saturday nights. There are 16 different train lines servicing Melbourne suburbs – many of these lines are linked to tram or bus services.

Trams
Trams travel along many of Melbourne's major thoroughfares. Most routes travel to and from the city centre, but some travel across the inner-city suburbs. Services operate from 5am until midnight Monday to Thursday with extended hours to around 1am on Friday and Saturday nights. Tram route numbers and destinations are displayed at the front of each tram and timetable information is available at tram stops.

Free City Circle Tram
Melbourne's free City Circle tram (Route 35) travels the perimeter of the city centre Sunday to Wednesday between 10am and 6pm and Thursday to Saturday 10am to 9pm. No services run on Christmas Day and Good Friday. Using historical W class trams, the service operates in a circular route passing many major attractions, as well as linking with other train, tram and bus routes in and around Melbourne. An automated audio commentary announces points of interest along the route.

Buses
Melbourne's bus network has over 300 routes transporting people across Melbourne's suburbs. Passengers should indicate their intention to board a bus by raising their arm as it approaches the stop. After midnight NightRider bus services travel from the city centre to Melbourne's suburbs between 1.30am – 4.30am on Saturdays and 1.30am – 5.30am on Sundays.

Free Melbourne Visitor Shuttle

Taxis often wait in designated ranks that are clearly signposted at central locations such as major hotels or train stations, and at the airport. You can also hail a taxi in the street. If the rooftop light is illuminated, it means the taxi is available for hire. You can also book a taxi by telephone.

Melbourne Mobility Centre
The Melbourne Mobility Centre is dedicated to improving access for everyone in the heart of the city. It offers services such as equipment for hire, two fully accessible toilets and visitor information for older people and those with both permanent and temporary disabilities.
